

Not only do I financially support K-Love, it is the only station many of my friends listen to. This station supports the very ideals that America was founded on. Secular music does not support any decent morals or values. Please do not introduce LPFM if it takes away the only station I feel comfortable listening too. Thank you.